Dec 2009 News Stuffs

Another good turnout considering that the party is in only two more days. Our tout ensemble included Bill, Judy, Jerry, Linda, Louie, Mary Lou, Paul, Greg, Phil, Karen, Wayne, Laura, Dave, Cassandra, the Katzenjammer Kids, and the club transcriber.

Paul added 16 ones and paid out 200 for the food donation. Moldy Oldies: The Nile is set for the 23rd of May. Spring Fling announcements have been sent to the calendars and they have all responded. Judy will talk to Elvis. That should be a trick. Paul has been given our blessing to make us a plaque and send it in so we get the early discount. Greg will send him some old stuffs to look at.

Stuffs Discussed Ad Nauseum Dept: A possible cruise was again mentioned and pigeon holed.

New Stuff: Greg is going to take on another Chuckanut Manor food fight Wagon Master, maybe April. Start skipping breakie now.

. Good of the Order Dept: No gismo was returned as the Prez is having it bronzed and will hang it from the rear view mirror of his Mercury. Greg took the 50/50 big bucks, gave a single to each Lucas and Jaxson and gave the rest back to Paul. What a sweetie. Also Phil finally noticed his F-100 was not in the garage so he found it and brought it home. That will make two running F-100's in the club. Thanks, Phil. And last, it's "Lucky Greg" from now on as the other day his steering arm broke while pulling into the driveway after a 75mph sprint across town. Only casually was his hand and the 8 stitches from the repair. I tol' you, son, stay away from wheelbarrows. You know you don't know nothin' 'bout machinery.

And very, very last was the great party, great friends, good food, outrageous entertainment and Debby was kind of cute too. I bought her girlfriend a Sex on the Beach, something I can recommend from years of cruising. You missed a good one if you didn't come.
