Jan Twenty-Ten News Stuffs

We enter the New Year with the usual suspects in place at the dinner table. Captain Billy and Judy, Jerry and Linda, Phil and Karen, Louie and MaryLou, Greg and Gail, Paul and yours truly pulled the cork on a diet coke and brought 2010 in.

Paul finally got Louie to pay up plus we got 13 smackers and an extra 10 from Greg from the 50/50. Paid out 300 clams for the party. He also got a mahalo from the Cocoon House.

Last Year Dept: Da party highlights: It was lucky that Bill's balloon missed the ceiling fan or management would have given us the 86, I think. Harry bought Sex on the Beach for Debbie, a highlight for such an old guy. Judy, being raised in a Nunnery, said she had never heard of sex on the beach.

75th Anniversary of the Spring Fling: Ups, that's the 75th Elvis Anniversary and it looks like he will join us again, as long as we can get Medicare to pay for digging him up. The Nile is still set for the 23rd of May. Paul says he will start on the plaques this month so we get the early discount. Greg promised him some stuff from last month, remember Greg?

New Stuff: Greg is still on tap for the Chuckanut Manor pig out Wagon Master, maybe April. Stratocurzers are still offering free entry and primo parking for any hearty person who helps park cars at O-dark thirty. This is on the 18th of July for Kla Ha Ya Days. There also was a plug for a show in Dayton near WalaWala on the 2nd weekend in June but I couldn't find it on the calendar. More input required, guys.

Good of the Order Dept: Most important is Judy who will be in surgery Monday, probably when you read this, so give her your best thoughts. The gismo was returned sporting more lavish decorations, its last as it turns out. Louie, who was slated to haul the 347 kilo gismo home, called for a vote to retire it. It passed unanimously.

So from now on we will reward the birthday person with choice of dessert at Spiro's. Primo, yeah? And so he can pay for next year's dues, we let Louie win the 50/50.
